

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Darleen Gage is a native South Dakotan; and,

WHEREAS, Darleen has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Because of her community involvement, Darleen received the "Woman of Achievement Award" in 1987; and,

WHEREAS, Darleen is a devoted mother to her children Gary, Mike, Chris and Patty, and a loving grandmother to six grandchildren; and,

WHEREAS, After a lifelong career ending with ten years of service as election supervisor in the Office of the Secretary of State, Darleen is retiring on April 14, 1989; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim April 14, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing her good luck in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine
